Charley Spivak Orchestra Signed For UB Christmas Ball, Dec. 12

Elmer Maher New Assistant In Maintenance

Elmer W. Maher Jr. has been appointed assistant superintendent of buildings and grounds at the University.

A native of Pelham, N. Y., Maher has resided in Bridgeport for the past five years. He entered the University of Bridgeport as a student and has been employed as supervisor in the Audio-visual Aids center. He also was night supervisor for two years with the American District Telegraph Co.

Maher graduated from the Bronxville, N. Y. high school and was employed for one year in the department of traffic control for the Bronxville municipality. He holds a certificate in engineering from Norwich University and is working towards a Bachelor of Science degree in education at UB.

A veteran of four years' army service during World War II, he served in the 1st and 3rd armies in the European theatre. Following his discharge, he was a staff photographer for the Nuernburg war crimes trials.

CHARLIE SPIVAK

New Haven Maestro To Appear at Ritz

(Special to The SCRIBE)

Charlie Spivak will bring his top flight orchestra to the Ritz Ballroom Friday evening, Dec. 12, for the annual Christmas Ball.

Spivak, billed as "the man who plays the sweetest trumpet in the world," has such musical background as playing in 20th Century Fox's "Pin-Up-Girl," starring Betty Grable and "Follow the Boys," for Universal.

Student Groups Now Located In Alumni Hall

All student organizations have moved into Alumni Hall, as of this past Monday.

During the Thanksgiving vacation, the maintenance department moved the office equipment from the other building to Alumni Hall.

Offices which have moved and the rooms that they occupy are as follows:

Mr. Brewer, from Howland 3 to AH 2, North West corner.

Wistarian, from Cortright 3 to AH 3, South East corner.

SCRIBE, from Cortright 3 to AH 3, North East corner.

Student Council, from Cortright 3 to AH 3, North side.

Social Activities, from Cortright 3 to AH 3, North West corner.

Alumni Office (Heath), from Cortright 2 to AH 2, West side.

Other room appointments, such as Inter-Fraternity Council and the many individual clubs, will be made following the next Alumni Hall Board of Directors' meeting.

Starting in the near future, The SCRIBE will NOT be reached from an intra-University phone. Within the week, our office will have its own private outside line, NOT connected through the University switchboard. We'll let you in on the number when we find out.

The building would be open to the students according to the following schedule:

Monday thru Thursday - 7:30 A. M. to 11:30 P. M. Friday - 7:30 A. M. until 1:00 A. M. Saturday - 9:00 A. M. to 1:00 A. M. Sunday - 9:00 A. M. to 11:30 P. M.

Permanent officers of the Board will be chosen next week; until then, Bob Heath is temporarily in charge of the building and may be contacted by students and groups who wish to use the building. Groups wishing to post promotional material must contact Bob before putting up posters, signs or displays.

All requests for changes in room assignments must be submitted to either Harvey Seltzer, Bob Heath or Mr. Brewer as soon as possible so that a permanent schedule can be set up.

Born in New Haven, Conn., Spivak got his first trumpet when still in grade school. He went to Hillhouse High School, studying the trumpet with George Hyer, a member of the New Haven Symphony Orchestra.

He joined the Benny Pollack Band, a number one outfit of the time, and his next stop was with the Dorsey Brothers Orchestra, where he played alongside such musicians as Glenn Miller, Skeets Herfut and Bob Crosby.

When Ray Noble came to America, he asked Glenn to help him organize a band. The first musician to be signed was Spivak.

When Spivak left to try his musical wings on his own, he became the highest paid free lance trumpeter in radio, playing on the Ford Symphony Hour, Kate Smith and Fred Allen broadcasts.

Spivak organized his own band and had his first engagement at the Glen Island Casino in New Rochelle, N. Y. He jumped off to the Cafe Rouge of the Hotel Statler, N. Y., and broke both Glenn Miller's and Jimmy Dorsey's records. He went on to do the same thing at the Hotel Commodore. He has been a regular attraction at the Statler every year.

A highlight in his career was his award by Downbeat Magazine as the top sweet band. Spivak is a baseball team, having organized a team within his own band. He plays center field with the group.

Among the more prized moments of bandleader Spivak's brilliant career is the high praise he received from the lips of Fritz Kreisler, the eminent classical violinist and soloist.

Spivak has an album of Kreisler compositions for RCA Victor, called "Kreisler Favorites." The records were unusual in that it was the first time that the virtuoso has approved having his compositions played in dance tempo. Also, it required transposing the classical Kreisler violin solos to trumpet parts.

Tickets are on sale at the book store or at Social Activities office, 3rd floor, Alumni Hall. Ticket No. 12 is exchangeable for tickets for one couple.

New Hockey Club Hopes For Appearance Soon

The University may soon have another varsity or semi-varsity sport for the winter season.

Over 50 students have signed up for what is expected to be an inter-collegiate hockey team, playing such squads as two teams of Yale students and a team of Columbia students playing out of Darien.

Richard Kennedy, one of UB's more enthusiastic fans, has been trying to get the team started all fall. He has hopes of being able to use the hockey equipment belonging to Norwalk High School, now that that school no longer uses it.

The team would play in the Crystal Rink, Norwalk, and would see such top hockey players as Ralph Armstrong and an unnamed player, reported to have played with the Montreal Canadian farm system.

Kennedy will hold two meetings Tuesday, one at 10 A. M. and another at 4 P. M. in Marina Lounge for all those who have signed up and those who are interested but who have failed to sign up.

Some of the players are expected to see service are:

Bob Nolan, Carl Weinstein, Ray

Help Helicon

"Material is urgently needed for this year's Helicon" states John Irvine, editor of the UB literary magazine.

Short stories, essays, poetry, or any articles of varying interest are wanted.

All students who have material that they wish to submit, or those interested in working for the Helicon, should contact any English teacher, or apply at the Helicon Office, 3rd floor Alumni Hall.

Gould Authors Tax Article

E. Noah Gould, assistant Professor of Industrial Relations, authored a 2000 word article on wage and salary stabilization that appears in the Oct. issue of the "Monthly Digest of Tax Articles."

The article, entitled "The 1952 Wage and Salary Stabilization Amendments," views that the new amendments remove from wage and salary controls employers of eight or less employees, agricultural workers, professional engineers, and some accountants and architects. Also, that wages of a dollar an hour or less are decontrolled, and, in addition so are wages paid by Bowling Alleys.

A former member of the faculty of RPI, Mr. Gould, who received a master of arts degree from the U. of Penn, spent several years as an inspector with the US Wage and Hour Division, has worked on production line and in personnel work in industry and has taught classes to various labor unions, including one course sponsored by Cornell U.

Canfield Co. Enrolls Supervisors In Spanish

Nineteen foremen and supervisors of the H. O. Canfield Co. have enrolled in a Spanish course in oral Spanish at the University announces John F. Dunnigan, general manager and vice-president of the company.

Designed to run for a twelve-week period of two-hour sessions, the course is especially constructed to afford a speaking knowledge of the Spanish language. Classes are being held on the University campus and are being taught by Dr. Alfredo Kraessel.

According to Dunnigan, the course was established because the H. O. Canfield company is doing everything within its power to encourage the Puerto Rican and Cuban workers. Already nearly one hundred have been employed so far and they would like to hire many more.

"Our experience with the Spanish-speaking population has been very favorable. We find that the Puerto Ricans are very dependable and are doing a fine job. To overcome the language barrier between our foremen and Puerto Rican employees, we felt that such a course of instruction would enable us to understand their problems. Heretofore, we have been
